

Tantric Journey

Tantric Journey School of Healing and Awakening was founded by Mal Weeraratne in order to assist women, men and couples to access the healing powers of Tantra.

Over two decades Mal has developed a revolutionary healing and emotional release technique combining Eastern and Western knowledge including the techniques and wisdom of Tantra and Tao, this serves as the foundation of the Tantric Journey treatment plan.

About Mal

Mal has travelled around the world to learn under the tuition of various schools, masters, pioneers and after many years of research and training he became the first certified Tantra Educators in the UK to graduate from the Source School of Tantra in the USA.

Today Mal's work is all about helping people to gain release from negative trauma, enabling them to transform their life. Allowing them to blossom and achieve their full potential.

Mal is now considered a leading tantra healer and pioneer in the field of emotional detox through deep body therapy. As well as being a popular author and running a successful Tantric Journey practice, he also passes on his valuable emotional release techniques through his teaching of workshops and courses.

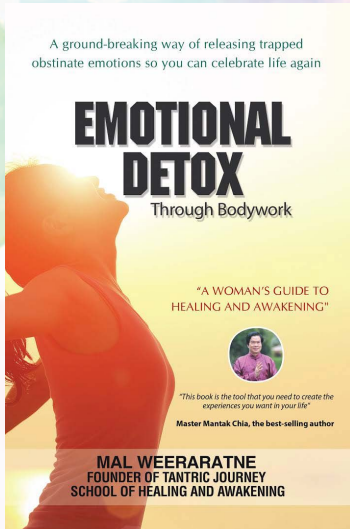

A prolific speaker and author Mal has given lectures and talks in the UK and Europe in addition to teaching in the UK, Asia and Europe.

He has treated thousands of clients, has an impressive collection of testimonials and has trained hundreds of students. His dedication and expertise in his field of practice is most commendable.

Working with Tantric Journey

I am happy to receive appropriate products for review, as well as services, primarily those that will fit in with my readership. I am happy to participate in press days, give media interviews and attend events and feature these on my blog, with a thanks and appropriate links.

As an experienced, published writer & recipe developer, I am always happy to discuss and accept proposals to write articles on drink history for magazines & newspapers as well as on-line publications. I am also available to write guest posts.

In short there are lots of opportunities to work with Tantric Journey which include:
